

6th KASC

Korea-America Student Conference

Collaborate to Converge: An Interlocking World

July 1st ~ 30th

- Handong University, Pohang

- Yonsei University, Seoul

- Korea Advanced Institute of Science and Technology, Daejeon

- Jeju National University, Jeju Island

Early Application Deadline:

February 1st, 2013

Final Application Deadline:

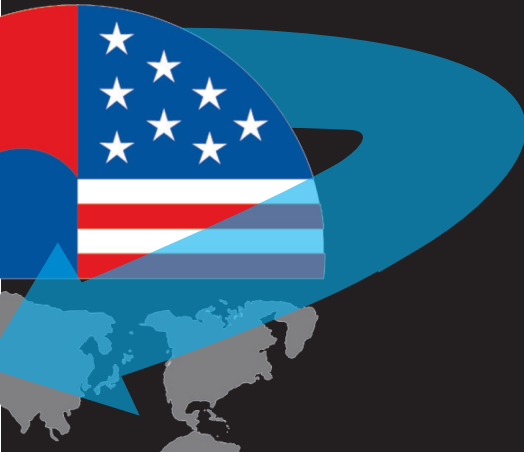

March 1st, 2013

For more information,
visit our website:

www.iscdc.org

Or e-mail us:

6thkasc@gmail.com

6th KASC

Korea-America Student Conference

Held in English, KASC brings together 25 American and 25 Korean students from all levels of higher education (undergraduate and graduate) for an intensive academic and cultural month of exploring U.S.-Korea relations.

Students live, work, travel and research as a unified group, building close ties that last a lifetime.

KASC is operated by International Student Conferences (ISC), a non-profit organization located in Washington D.C.

6th KASC Roundtable Topics

International Development:

Empowering People to their Full Potential

Arts and Culture:

A Tool to Strengthen US-ROK Relations

Science and Technology:

Future Development of US-ROK Relations

US-ROK Politics:

A New Era for Peace and Security

Impact Business:

From Maximizing Profit to Maximizing Impact