

The S&R Foundation 2014 JASC Scholarship

BACKGROUND: In 2014, the S&R Foundation will provide one need-based scholarship for a student to attend the 66th Japan-America Student Conference (JASC) as an American delegate. Founded in 2000 by Dr. Sachiko Kuno and Dr. Ryuji Ueno, the S&R Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization based in Washington, D.C. Its mission is to support talented individuals with great potential and high aspirations in the arts and sciences, especially those who are furthering international cultural collaboration. While no American delegate will be excluded from applying for the scholarship, those who can demonstrate their own potential and aspirations in the arts and sciences through this application will be leading candidates.

AMOUNT AVAILABLE: The scholarship will provide $3000 for one student to attend JASC that may not otherwise have the chance to participate in the conference.

HOW TO APPLY: Email your responses to the questions on this form (1 page or less) to jasc@iscdc.org and complete the online application process.

DEADLINE: March 1, 2014

WHEN AWARDS WILL BE MADE: Recipients will be notified before April 1, 2014

FOR MORE INFORMATION: Contact ISC office 202-289-9088 or email at jasc@iscdc.org

1. Statement of Need:

Please provide a 500 word or less statement of need. Include any relevant information about your financial situation-family background, current academic financial aid received, etc.

2. Is this scholarship the only means by which you can participate in JASC? (Yes or No, if yes, please provide a brief explanation)

3. In 250 words or less, please describe your aspiration for furthering international cultural collaboration.