ABOUT JAPAN-AMERICA STUDENT CONFERENCE

Founded in 1934, the Japan-America Student Conference (JASC) is the first and continuing exchange program between the two countries. Student-led and student-run, the 1934 Conference was initiated by university students concerned by the breakdown of bilateral relations prior to the Second World War. While the U.S.-Japan relationship has evolved dramatically since the Conference's founding 86 years ago, its mission has remained unchanged: to foster peace through people-to-people diplomacy and empower the next generation of U.S.-Asia leaders. Today, an equal number of students from the U.S. and Japan are competitively selected each year to spend up-to one summer month together, studying and analyzing Japan-U.S. relations while visiting four diverse regions in the host country. JASC alternates its host country every year, emphasizing the personal connections between two distinct cultures gathered together in one place.

Celebrating its 74th Conference in Summer 2022, JASC continues to empower the next generation of leaders from both countries and has an extensive network of alumni in all industries and across the world.

International Student Conferences, Inc. (ISC) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization headquartered in Washington, D.C. whose mission is to promote peace by furthering mutual understanding, friendship, and trust through international student interchange.

Through its four flagship programs: the Japan-America Student Conference (JASC), the Korea-America Student Conference (KASC), the China-America Student Conference (ChASC), and the U.S.-Japan-Korea Trilateral Forum; ISC aims to instill in the next generation of U.S.-Asia leaders a lifelong dedication to dialogue, diplomacy, and cooperation that is firmly rooted in genuine trust and mutual understanding. Accepted participants enter our programs as eager Delegates interested in U.S.-Asia relations and emerge as dedicated Ambassadors well-equipped with the professional and interpersonal skills needed to serve as a bridge between the two countries. We believe the intensity and accountability required of student-run Conferences empower young leaders to take joint action in addressing global problems, despite national and cultural differences. Moreover, the cross-cultural bonds created during the Conferences are genuine and lasting. As participants enter into leadership roles within their countries and their local communities, the lessons, experiences, and relationships imparted by our programs stand to not only further global cooperation but contribute to a more peaceful world.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

American Orientation

The American Orientation will be held at the first site of the conference. Held one day before the official conference on August 3rd, this will give the American delegates a chance to meet each other before their Japanese counterparts arrive on the 4th.

Main Conference

The following day, the Japanese delegation will arrive, and the main conference will begin. The conference will take place from August 4th-August 26th, 2022. Delegates will visit New York City, Washington D.C., and San Francisco.

At each of the three sites, delegates will experience local culture and nature while learning and participating in activities such as: roundtable discussions, cultural and social events, lectures, workshops and panel presentations. Delegates will have the opportunity to collaborate with leaders in business, academia, and government on contemporary social, economic, and political issues that face both of their countries and the world as a whole. At the conclusion of the conference, delegates will be encouraged to convey their final remarks and reflections of their JASC experience during the annual Final Forum.

FAQs

Can I apply for JASC if I am a graduating senior?

Yes! As long as you are enrolled as a university student at the time of application, you are eligible.

Can I apply if I am not a U.S. citizen/do not study in the United States?

Yes, as long as you are able to travel to the locations for AO and the main conference and feel comfortable providing an "American" perspective during conference programming.

Does ISC or JASC provide any financial aid?

Through the Plant a Diplomatic "Tree" Scholarship Fund, ISC will provide one scholarship for each of ISC's 2022 Conferences. For a list of other potential scholarships, please click here.
[<https://iscdc.org/scholarships/>

What does the $3500 fee cover?

The fee for JASC will include lodging, meals, conference activity fees/expenses, and any ground transportation/flights between sites. Delegates are responsible for personal expenses (extra food, gifts, etc.) as well as transportation to the first site and home from the last site of the conference.

When should I purchase my flight tickets?

You may purchase your flight as soon as you are accepted as delegates. Due to COVID-19, JASC strongly recommends that accepted delegates purchase refundable tickets in the event that government recommendations discourage travel.

What impact does COVID-19 have on JASC?

We are committed first and foremost to the health and safety of all students and therefore will adapt with the circumstances in the U.S. and Japan as program planning continues. Executive committee members are currently planning events and activities with COVID-19 and appropriate safety measures in mind.

Your patience is appreciated in the event that it becomes unsafe to travel to any of the scheduled programs. Please consider that we are committed to providing a worthwhile student experience even if the logistics of the conference may change.
